DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Deiss (4,581,644).

Regarding claim 1, Deiss discloses a first information output means (26, 30), a second information output means (28) with a common signal line (24), and a remote control (38). The first and second information output means are selectively operated in either a single circuit mode or a combined circuit mode.

Regarding claim 2, Deiss disclose a first control means (32), a first information playback means (30), a second control means (34), a second information playback means (28), and switch means (switches in element 28).

Regarding claim 3, the control logic 32 selects and controls a video/audio playback and record device in accordance with control signals from the remote control and communicates with logics 34 and 36 through common line 24 to control further desired AV devices.

Conclusion

3. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Beyers, Jr. (4,581,645) shows a video control device.

Sato et al. (5,416,535) shows a remote control.
